golf course

The jewel in the crown is the extraordinary beautiful and uniquely charming 18 hole, par 72 golf course designed by the renowned Donald Steel, who has developed over 100 courses in 20 countries around the world, including Turnberry (Scotland), Forest of Arden (England) and Vila Sol (Portugal). Lying in the midst of dramatic rolling hills and wooded valleys, the course will challenge and delight even the most experienced players. Enjoyable, beautiful and serene, it's a course matched only by the 5-star Clubhouse and superb facilities.

Mark Twain lamented golf as “a good walk spoiled”, but clearly he never had the chance to play at CampoReal. Starting and ending with par 5 holes, the course winds through a natural landscape of beautiful valleys framed by vineyards.

Stunning views greet you on invitingly elevated tees, while the undulating greens test both your judgment and skill. And for those taking an opposing view to Mr. Twain - in that “good golf is only spoiled by the walk” – there is a network of cart paths, allowing easy access by buggy.

CampoReal's golf course has been developed in association with environmental planning experts at the renowned Audubon International Institute and applies environmentally sensitive management practices to ensure a hospitable and sustainable habitat for flora and fauna through the resort. Mindful of the warm dry climate, the resort has two new reservoirs that supplement the natural wells around the site. This enables CampoReal to maintain a top quality golf course whilst utilizing its own resources all year around.
